

COMMODITY SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PROGRAM

APPLICANT'S RIGHTS

The following shall be read by, or read to, the applicant or the applicant's parent or caretaker at the time of certification:

1. Standards for participation in the Program are the same for everyone regardless of race, color, or national origin.
2. You may appeal any decision made by the distribution site regarding your denial or termination from the Program.
3. If your application is approved, the distribution site will make nutrition education available to you and you are encouraged to participate.

The Non-discrimination Statement is on the back. Please turn over.

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint\_filing\_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
