York County Agency Summit: Food Assistance Programs Come Together to Learn and Collaborate

Together, the York County Food Bank and the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank will host the first ever York County Agency Summit on Saturday, Sept. 11, 2021 at PeoplesBank Park (York Revolution Stadium) in York. Food pantries, food assistance programs, and other community partners will convene for a day of celebration, education, and networking.

Over the last year and a half, charitable food organizations have been working harder than ever to meet the increased need for food caused by the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. With this event, the York County Food Bank and Central Pennsylvania Food Bank recognize and thank our partners for their dedication and offer an opportunity for education, collaboration, and networking.

At the Summit, organizations will attend breakout sessions on topics such as Food Safety, Grant Writing/ Fundraising, Connecting with Volunteers, Food as Medicine, and Lessons in Food Dignity. Attendees will also hear from keynote speaker Clancy Harrison as she discusses the Food Dignity Movement and how charitable food organizations can apply it's principles to empower those in need.

About York County Food Bank

The mission of the York County Food Bank is to end hunger in York County by working with our partner agencies to increase the quantity of—and dignified access to—high quality, nutritious food for everyone in need. The Food Bank serves as a central hub that collects and redistributes food to over 125 food distribution partners and programs, including 501 C-3 nonprofit groups, shelters, churches, senior centers, schools and various community centers. In response to the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Food Bank distributed the equivalent of 5.4 million meals in 2020.
