York County Food Bank Warehouse Moving: Dates Confirmed

Community Moving Days

To better serve the needs of the community the York County Food Bank is moving its warehouse operations to a new location in Emigsville in May. This new location will allow the Food Bank to continue serving the community with greater efficiency.

For the past two years, the Food Bank has been operating out of its Haines Road facility in East York, thanks to the generosity of Kinsley Properties, that allowed the organization to use the space at no cost.

Over the past two years the Food Bank has distributed more food than it ever has in its 40-year history. The Food Bank's robust response to the pandemic-driven increase in food demand would not have been possible without the support of many generous donors and volunteers that stepped up to assist.

Moving all the Food Bank's equipment, refrigeration/freezer units and thousands of pallets of dry, refrigerated, and frozen food items to the new warehouse will be a huge undertaking. However, once again the community has stepped up and will support the Food Bank on its Community Moving Days: Tuesday April 12 and Wednesday April 13. Amazon, First Capital Fibers, Giant, MidAtlantic and others have agreed to donate trucks, trailers, and drivers to assist in the move.

"We are incredibly grateful to these companies who have graciously agreed to assist with our move, as we continue fighting hunger in York County," said Jennifer Brillhart, York County Food Bank President and CEO.

In addition to the warehouse move, the Food Bank's drive-thru food distribution will take place at 2530 Cape Horn Road beginning April 19th and continue every 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month from 4:30-6:30pm. The Food Bank's main office will remain at its familiar location in the City of York.

Anyone who is struggling to put food on the table should call 717-846-6435 or visit www.yorkfoodbank.org.

Media Coverage: The best time to collect footage and interviews will be April 13 at 7:00am at 1094 Haines Road, York.

About York County Food Bank

The mission of the York County Food Bank is to increase dignified access to nutritious food and community resources that enhance food security in York County. The Food Bank serves as a central hub that collects and redistributes food to over 125 food distribution partners and programs, including 501 C-3 nonprofit groups, shelters, churches, senior centers, schools and various community centers.
